This is a hand-drawn map of a region in Odisha, India, specifically the area around Boudh. The map shows the Brahmani River flowing from the north towards the south. The Deula River is shown as a tributary joining the Brahmani. Several villages are marked with dots and labeled in Odia script. A legend on the right side of the map provides information about the symbols used:

- Electric revenue service: Represented by a solid line.
- Roads: Represented by a dashed line.
- Railroads: Represented by a dotted line.
- Villages: Indicated by a small dot.

 The map also includes a scale bar at the bottom right indicating distances up to 10 miles.
